The Mississippi Accrediting Commission informed Christ Episcopal Day School that it had again received the coveted "AA" rating. This is the third consecutive year that this rating has been received. It is understood that relatively few Mississippi elementary schools have this rating, as it is the highest that can be received. NICHOLAS ANTUNICA SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IN PRISON

Nicholas Antunica, who pleaded guilty to two charges of incest, was sentenced to the state penitentiary Monday in the Hancock County Court.

Judge Leslie B. Grant sentenced Antunica to three years on each count after Antunica changed his pleading to guilty. The sentences were set to run concurrently.

Walter Gorman, negro, charged with three counts of burglary and larceny of the St. Rose Catholic rectory, changed his pleading to guilty. He was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary, but sentence was suspended on good behavior and he was placed on probation for five years.

Johnny Sanford, 61, a Covington County, Miss., who now operates a fishing camp near the Fulton Community shot in the abdomen early Tuesday by an unidentified man fled in an automobile. Sanford underwent emergency surgery at the Biloxi Veterans Administration Hospital before noon Tuesday; his condition was listed there as serious.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner said Sanford was shot about 7:45 a. m. when he was awakened by a man who knocked at the door of his cabin at the fishing camp, which is located on Hotten Bayou, near the Harrison County line. When Sanford came to the porch, Ladner said a man standing on the outside pulled at the screen and called: "Johnny, I want to rent a cabin."

Then two shots were fired, the striking Sanford in the abdomen. Sanford staggered back, fired a .45 caliber revolver and fired three shots at his assailant, as he leaped into a gray car and sped away, the Sheriff said.

The wounded man told officers he believed one bullet struck the car.

Sheriff Ladner said a flattened slug extracted from the cabin wall appeared to be of .38 pistol caliber. Two bullet holes were found in the screen door about one inch apart, he added.

Sanford was rushed to Gulfport Memorial Hospital by a Meridian couple, the only other occupants of the camp at the time.

The couple were identified as Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rawson of Meridian, who arrived at the camp Monday afternoon on a vacation fishing trip.

Rawson told Harrison County Deputy Sheriff Claude Miller at the Gulfport Hospital that he and Mrs. Rawson were in their cabin when they heard two shots fired and, shortly after, three other shots.

The Meridian man said he heard a car door slam and the sound of an automobile leaving the scene. Running outside, Rawson said he heard Sanford say he had been shot.

Rawson assisted Sanford into his car and rushed him to the Gulfport Hospital and notified the Harrison County Sheriff's office.

Following emergency treatment, Sanford was transferred to the Veterans' hospital for surgery.

Sheriff Ladner, after being notified of the shooting by the Harrison County sheriff's office, made a detailed investigation at the shooting scene Tuesday.

Ladner said tire marks and other evidence were found including the slug which was imbedded in the cabin wall.

A possible suspect in the shooting was apprehended at Collins, Miss., late Tuesday.

A pistol slug, which seriously wounded Sanford, will be compared in a ballistic test with a revolver found in the residence of a Collins man arrested as a suspect in the shooting, Sheriff Ladner said Wednesday.

Ladner said a .38 caliber revolver was found in the residence of Buford Dees, 65, a farmer and former heavy equipment salesman residing near Collins, when Dees was arrested late Tuesday for questioning.

Sanford had told officers his assailant appeared to be an elderly, gray-haired man, Ladner said. Ladner further said Dees was sought for questioning, since he and Sanford, then Sheriff of Covington County, were involved in a shooting scrape in 1950 over domestic troubles.

Dees was arrested late Tuesday for investigation of assault and battery with intent by Covington County Sheriff Dale Shoemaker, accompanied by Sheriff Ladner, Deputy Carl Garcia and Kenneth Fairley, an investigator with the identification bureau of the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

Ladner said Dees gave officers a statement containing a confession that he had shot Sanford and fled in a car three years ago, but that he had changed his mind and was now seeking help.

Dees was taken to the Biloxi Veterans' hospital for surgery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ursula Sekul Pitalo, his daughter, Mrs. Robert Hummel, and his son, Mr. Robert Pitalo, all of Biloxi. Dees' brother, Mr. Pitalo, is a resident of Biloxi.

Dees' wife, Mrs. Pitalo, is a resident of Biloxi.

SEEKS RETURN OF TWO G'S IN LOCAL JAIL BEATING

District Attorney Boyce Holleman said he plans to file writs of habeas corpus seeking the return to Mississippi of two young servicemen indicted in connection with a Hancock County jail break last October 23.

The two were identified as Pvt. Robert L. Heath, 18, and Pvt. Jerry Richter, 17.

SERVING TERMS

Holleman said both are currently serving five-year terms in Oklahoma and Colorado prisons on a federal conviction for transporting a stolen automobile across a state line.

The two were in Bay St. Louis last Oct. 23 and a. aged night jailer Tony Bourgeois, and fled in the jailer's automobile.

They were later apprehended in Oklahoma City where they were convicted in federal court of violating the Dyer Act, Holleman said.

Holleman said both Heath and Richter will be tried next September in Hancock County Circuit Court if they can be returned to Mississippi. He said Hancock County has placed detainers on both young men.

A Hancock County grand jury earlier this month indicted Heath for armed robbery for the theft by force of $25 and a revolver from night jailer Bourgeois in the jail break.

Richter was indicted as an accessory after the fact to armed robbery.

JAILER BEATEN

Bourgeois was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head and was in critical condition in New Orleans hospital for some time.

Heath was also indicted for burglary of an ice-cream stand on Highway 90 in Bay St. Louis last October 2.

Waveland, Miss.

Kantcho Ketchum

Glad to report that the water in the River and bayous is clearing rapidly and that fresh water fish are striking a lot better, thanks to the good weather of the past week.

Horatio Favre and August Bauxet are among those getting their share.

Raymond Hoffman spent the weekend at the Bay and enjoyed some fishing.

Bernard Farrelly and Chas. Lozano reported catching some nice Sheephead under the Highway bridge lately. They were using oysters for bait.

Clois Dedeaux is still nursing a broken foot, but is doing O. K. and hopes to get back to fishing shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Payne who reside on Ulman Avenue likes to fish and hope to enjoy some since they are located here. Mr. Payne works at Tulane University in New Orleans but is originally from Waterloo, Iowa.

M'Sgt. W. H. "Mickey" Boyer of Alpine Lane, Pease, A. F. B. spent last week at the Bay, his former home. Mickey enjoyed mingling with old friends and talking over old times.

Believe it or not, Judge Nolan Lader reports catching a few soft crabs over the weekend. That's good news.

UNUSUAL
Leroy Luke and son, Leroy, Jr. with Marshall Moreale, Jr. and Roy Dedeaux went fishing Sunday. Didn't do so hot but came home with a 1 1/2 pound green trout which they didn't catch. Here's how it happened. A large crane caught the fish in his claws and dropped it on the ground. The boys ran and grabbed the fish. Poor crane was the loser.

Sorry to hear that our old fishing partner, Harold Bates, is leaving us soon. He is returning to New York State, to make his future home.

Also sorry to hear that J. C. Baxter, Sr. is suffering with arthritis in his right hand. Hope he improves rapidly.

Workshop On Flower Arrangements Conducted At City-County Library

A workshop on flower arrangement design was conducted by Mrs. B. B. O'Mara of Biloxi on Tuesday, March 17th, at the City-County Memorial Library under the auspices of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club.

Mrs. O'Mara stressed that one must have a design in mind before beginning an arrangement. She demonstrated various types, the crescent, oval, Hogarth curve and the Japanese triangle. All attending made an arrangement in each class. Mrs. O'Mara also read the schedule for the Spring Flower Show and gave pointers on the different classes.

FIRST TEST VOTE ON ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT

The first test of how serious members of the U. S. House of Representatives actually are in the cries that many of them have raised for a balanced budget and for stopping inflation came last week when an attempt was made to cut $97 million from a 4-year airport authorization program. The amendments was adopted on a record vote of 191 to 214.

The United Press International's report on the first of these votes may be of interest to the people of South Mississippi since it refers to their humble Representative. It is reproduced below:

"Economy forces pushed through the amendment after Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.) warned that creeping inflation is opening the way for Communism by undermining the Nation's credit and value of the dollar."

When you destroy the value of the dollar and credit of this country, the Communists are going to move in," he said.

"Colmer said he discussed the state of the Nation's economy only recently with Treasury Secretary Anderson."

"When I started I was worried about the future of my grandchildren," he told a silent House. "When I got through I was worried about myself."

HOW TO ACHIEVE A SOUND FISCAL POLICY

Seven years ago to the day, we submitted to the Congress the following formula for achieving a sound fiscal policy:

First. Our legislative committees, as well as committees on appropriations, must cease reporting out bills except those which are absolutely essential to our economy and national defense.

Second. Every Member of this body must recognize that the objective of balancing the budget is his most important assignment.

Third. Sectionalism, partisan politics, responsiveness to highly organized minorities, must give way to the national need for a sound financial policy.

Fourth. Every dollar appropriated must be considered as carefully as if it were coming out of the pockets of the Members themselves, as indeed the Members' proportionate share is.

Fifth. Our congressional committees, particularly the appropriation committees, must be staffed with an adequate staff of experts equal in efficiency to the staffs of the various governmental agencies who appear before them seeking appropriations.

Sixth. The Congress and the country must recognize that financial solvency is as important as military might in preparing ourselves against any potential foreign aggressor, a fact which our military captains should be made to understand.

Seventh. Our foreign friends must be made to understand that there is a limit to the resources of America.

Eighth. The system of permitting the carryover of unspent funds from the current fiscal year into the new year must be abandoned. A meticulous study of the 1,200 pages of the President's budget this year will show that the carryover of unspent funds from the current fiscal year will exceed $60 billion.

Ninth. The procurement of military requirements, which constitute more than 50 percent of our expenditures, must be placed in the hands of trained civilians who appreciate the value of the dollar.

Tenth. And, finally, the citizens of the Republic, now conscious as never before of the burdens of taxation, must practice the doctrine of States' responsibility as well as States rights. The practice of looking to Washington for Federal aid in civil responsibilities of their own must cease. They must realize that there is no State, county, or city whose financial statement is not sounder than that of the Federal Government.

Andy J. Becker, Chairman of the Hancock County Savings Bonds Committee, gave his first report for 1959, and announced that the 1959 Savings Bonds Year goal for the County will be $70,000.

"During the months of January and February, the people of this county purchased $45,934.14 in Savings Bonds," he said.

As a result of the competitive examination given at Pearl River Junior College last Thursday on their annual "Senior Day," Billy Cox and Mrs. J. J. MENTAL HEALTH FUND RAISING CAMPAIGN APRIL 26 - MAY 31

Jackson, Miss., The third Mental Health Week fund-raising campaign is announced today by the Mississippi Association for Mental Health for April 26th through May 31.

W. P. "Pat" McMullan, Jr., chairman of the campaign advisory committee, announced also the appointment of Joel H. Bass, Wiggins, as campaign director. Senator John C. Stennis is honorary chairman of the fund-raising campaign.

Other members of the campaign advisory committee are: Hugh H. Clayton, New Albany; Morris Lewis, Indianola; Hugh O. Smith, R. B. Everett, and Mrs. A. C. Griffin, Jr., of Jackson, and R. C. Stovall, Columbus.

This year, Bass announced, a $60,000 goal has been set for the state of Mississippi to raise funds in those areas of the state in which mental health is not included in United Givers or Community Chests.

Tagged the nation's number one health problem, more than 2,000 people in Mississippi are suffering from a mental or emotional disturbance, he said.

The State Mental Health Association required funds to carry on their program of education, research and service.

Bass stated that the need for funds in Mississippi is very great, with the record of over 8,000 patients hospitalized in state mental hospitals and in psychiatric beds in general hospitals.

Mental Health Week will be celebrated in Mississippi April 26 through May 31, in conjunction throughout the nation. Joining in
